Where are we being called?

Where do we experience the presence of Jesus in the world today? How do we serve the Lord? All these questions do not have easy answers because they require faith and the Holy Spirit to lead us. We need to take the time and listen. We need to take the time to know ourselves and remember that we have been formed by God from the very beginning. We need to be calling out "Here I am Lord; I come to do your will." And then listen some more in the silence of our inner self and wait for the Spirit to inspire us.

When can we hear the call of God? We can hear the call, when we listen in silence; when we see injustice done; when we hear the cry of the sick; when we see children dying of starvation or lack of healthcare. All the saints were called uniquely and differently for missions.

We might not expect the call we want, but God is faithful and will call and inspire us when we need for his glory. Until then, we need to pray and wait. We can discern the call of the Lord through constant affirmation when we go deep within and find the peace that he will grant us.

This week, you are called to join the FaceBook page of the Parish, St. Bartholomew. It is a private group for our Parish to share information and unite people in the path of St. Bartholomew. To give request, go to your facebook page and search St. Bartholomew Parish – Trempealeau, WI. You will find the page with the Picture of our parish. Let us Glorify the Cross of Christ,

Fr. Antony Joseph.
