Pastoral Visiting: knocking on a few doors, this lent

In the gospels, Jesus ministered in many different locations from fields, boats, synagogues. However on a number of occasions the Bible mentions that Jesus “entered the house”.

- When Jesus enters the house,
the sick are healed (Mathew 8)
- When Jesus enters the house,
the needs are met (Mathew 17)
- When Jesus enters the house,
the dead are raised (Mark 5)
- When Jesus enters the house,
people are attracted (Mark 2:1-2)
- When Jesus enters the house,
the new beginning arises (Luke 11)

God wants to enter our churches. He wants to enter our families. He wants to enter our lives. He wants to come in all His fullness. I don’t just want a taste. I don’t just want a little. I want Jesus, in all His fullness.

Throughout the year, as faithful you come to church. Now, as a pastor, I feel it is appropriate to visit your home and bring Jesus in all His fullness. So, I have decided to make Pastoral Visit to all the houses.

What I will do? I will try to make appointment with you to visit the house. I will reach you by phone or email or in person. If any of these three doesn’t work, I will knock at your door.

What I need? Your time: Minimum 10 minutes.

What can you give? A cup of coffee. If you love me more, sugar in it. (Nothing more than this)

First, I will visit all parishioners in St. Mary’s Parish. I pray to Mother Mary of Galesville to guide me to success in the Pastoral Visit to the houses.

Lent is coming. Let us lend our hearts to Jesus.

Fr. Antony Joseph
