Dear People of God,

We are in 7th Sunday in Ordinary time. We have a very big call from Jesus to build up a kingdom of peace. The call is “LOVE YOUR ENEMY”. If the world begins to love the enemy, the world will begin to grow towards the Kingdom of Peace. As for Jesus, I must be the first person to love the enemy.

Who is my enemy? I don’t think that Jesus is defining the enemy who betrayed me or insulted me or envied me in any way individually. It is all just a small problem which can be solved easily. Enemy here means I neglect a person because of his nature or background or citizenship or religion. “HATE YOUR ENEMY” is the philosophy of Roman Empire. As for Romans at that time, who is the enemy? Those who are not Romans. This is what Jesus wants to change. Can we accept the change that Jesus wants to bring? Yes. Dear people of God.

Coming Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. We are called to proclaim that we are dust and unto dust we shall return. Yes, this is the gospel that we are called to keep in mind. Let us repent and believe in the gospel Jesus proclaimed.

Love you all,
Fr. Antony Joseph
