Lockdown

Yes, there is fear. Yes, there is isolation. Yes, there is panic. Yes, there is sickness. Yes, there is even death. But, they say that after so many years of noise, you can hear the birds again. They say that after just a few weeks of quiet, the sky is no longer thick with fumes but blue and grey and clear. They say that in the streets of Assisi, People are singing to each other across the empty squares, keeping their windows open so that those who are alone may hear the sounds of family around them. They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland is offering free meals and delivery to the house-bound.

Today Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples are preparing to welcome and shelter the homeless, the sick, and the weary. All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting. All over the world people are looking at their neighbors in a new way. All over the world people are waking up to a new reality. To how big we really are. To how little control we really have.

To what really matters.

To Love.

So we pray and we remember this:

Yes, there is fear;

but there does not have to be hate.

Yes, there is isolation;

but there does not have to be loneliness.

Yes, there is panic buying;

but there does not have to be meanness.

Yes, there is sickness;

but there does not have to be disease of the soul

Yes, there is even death;

but there can always be a rebirth of love.

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.

Today, breathe.

Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic, the birds are singing again. The sky is clearing, Spring is coming, And we are always encompassed by Love. Open the windows of your soul and RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT.

HAPPY PENTECOST DAY.

Fr. Antony Joseph

COMMUNICATION TO ALL

- ♦ We will be open for people following the guidelines of the Dioceses of La Crosse. There will be a team of Ushers who will be here to help us. Only the main doors will be open. Ushers will seat you in a pew to help with social distancing. At communion the ushers will let the rows go out one by one and only Father will be giving the Eucharist. There will be no collection, but a basket will be at the entrance and you can put your envelope in before or after Mass. The ushers will let the pews out after Mass.
- ♦ The Bishop has highlighted that the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays remains dispensed. No one is required, under the pain of mortal sin, to attend Mass until further notice. In fact, at this time he encourage those over 65 and particularly those with underlying health issues to stay home. He ask those parishes that have the ability to livestream the Mass to continue do so for the sake of those who will not be able to attend.
