Jesus has profound paradoxes in his teaching: we gain life by losing life; we gain love when we give love. His Easter paradox involves death and life. Death gives life its meaning. Remove one and we lose both.

We want the crown of life, but we do not want the cross. We hear the promise of eternal life and have a tendency not to take up our cross and follow him. For Jesus, both are necessary. It is difficult and wrong to acquire Easter Sundays in life without Good Fridays.

Jesus calls us to life, but surely does not want us to choose the cross to get the crown. That is not love; that is a deal – something for something. Jesus accepted the cross out of love for his father and for us. Jesus was not “dealing;” he was giving us example of how to live life.

In Jesus’ mind he did not die to be raised to eternal life. He died to fulfill his father’s will and proclaim the message of love regardless of the violent reaction to him. He dearly suffered for his efforts. God raised him to eternal life.

In Matthew’s Gospel, in the parable of Final Judgment, People asked: “when did we feed you, clothe you, visit you?” Jesus replied that what they had done for the least of their brothers, they had done for him. The gift of ourselves to others is our Christian vocation. Sometimes we see the difference we make; sometimes, we do not. But, we are called to love, love in Action. This is what Easter means.

I welcome Rev. Fr. Jay to our Parish. He is from India. He came to USA on 16th March 2021. He will be with us for a month. He needs assistance in speaking the language as the way you speak and in Driving. Those who would like to help him, you are most welcome.

Grace-filled Happy Easter.

Fr. Antony Joseph
