Dear People of God,

"Do It in Remembrance of Me"

- JESUS

Jesus, Our Lord and God said after sharing the bread and wine, "Do It in Remembrance of Me". This is the remembrance we do every day at the altar. This call of remembrance brought to the Catholic Church the wonderful sacrament of Eucharist. Remembrance is a gift, a gift to the humans among all the species. The special act of the mind is remembering. Imagine a life without remembrance of the past. Oh, it is hard and hustles.

Memorial Day is celebrated to remember all soldiers and good people who fought and lost their life in the struggle to bring a nation with peace and justice. We honor all veterans on this beautiful day. Memorial Day is called in early days as Decoration Day. Yes, we need to decorate their life with our respect and their tomb with flowers. So, do come to the Holy Cross Cemetery on Monday, 31st May, 2021 to honor and pray for their souls. The Rosary for the departed souls will be at 5.30 PM and Mass will follow.

On every Baptism, I feel privileged to anoint a child with the Chrism Oil professing to become like a priest to bless... Yes, we are called to bless the living and dead. So, kindly bring the Holy Water to bless the loved one's tomb. It is an act of grace we do for the soul. Holy Water containers will be provided after Masses, this weekend.

Those we love don't go away;
They walk beside us every day.
Unheard but always near;
Still loved; still missed and very dear.

Fr. Antony Joseph
