Love's Two Stages

First, we receive love. St. John puts it like this: “This is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us.” We have no love that is not first received; any love I give was previously given to me from another (my mother, my father, my friends, etc). And the first source of all love in the world is God. So: stage one is to receive love from God.

But love must move to stage two, or it is incomplete and will die. Stage two is to give that love to another, to pass it on. If we just sit on the love given to us, it dies. So Jesus says, remain in my love by keeping my commandments. “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” This I command you, Jesus says: love one another. Love is not a feeling (no one can command feelings—they are beyond our control). But he can and does command an act of our wills, a decision to love. This is the basic stewardship principle: everything given to us is meant to be shared. That is particularly true of love. Love received is not complete or effective if I don’t give it away.

A Mother's Love

I can't earn love, but I can give it away. What does this authentic love look like? Well, look at a mother. She gives her blood during a pregnancy. She gives her milk after the child is born. She gives her sleep for the first two years; she gives immense amounts of her time and her sweat and her attention to her child. And in giving, she receives, perhaps not immediately, but she receives love. It comes not always from the child, but always from God. Authentic love does not look much like what you see on television. It looks a lot more like what you see in your mother, and hopefully your father too.

I wish all Mothers a Happy Mother's Day. I am gifted to have wonderful mothers in my parishes. Thank you.

In ten beautifully produced lessons, Parousia: The Bible and the Mass answers these questions and more. In the latest video Bible study from the St. Paul Center, discover why the liturgy is a major theme that runs through the entire Bible, from Genesis to the Book of Revelation. We'll see how the New Testament is concealed in the Old, the Old is revealed in the New, and why both point directly to the Mass, the sign of the New Covenant. Join host Scott Hahn to uncover how and why all of God's action, in creation and redemption, is ordered to the Mass. Ten weeks, beginning May 27th, Thursday evening, 6:30 PM in St. Mary's "Lower Room" (basement). If interested, contact Dcn. Kent via phone or email (608-864-0952, dcnkent@outlook.com) by Sunday, May 23rd. Cost? Just your time.

MISSION TRIP TO LAKE CHARLES, LOUISIANA: JULY 23-30, 2021

Plans are in the works for a beautiful week of service to Louisiana to provide relief for a very demolished area. Lake Charles was shredded by Hurricane Laura and Delta which hit the area just 6 weeks apart from each other. We are working with Catholic Charities and a few other organizations to make it possible for us to help in this devastation. Cost is $400, this includes lodging, meals and bus. Only out of pocket expenses will be meals on the ride to and from Louisiana and souvenirs. We leave from Prairie du Chien on Friday, July 23. Freshmen and older, who would like to join in this Mission Trip should contact Fr. Antony, before May 9th, at 608-881-1401. For any questions please contact Mary Stoeffler, 563-329-0149 or mstoeffler64@gmail.com.

Thank you to our sponsors. Please frequent these special businesses!
