Dear Friends in Christ,

I am happy to thank Katie Schuth for choosing the focus ministry and empowering herself to do God's work. We all do God's work in a hidden and mysterious way. Some do not realize that they are doing His work, but they will be doing it in a wonderful way. Some are chosen for His ministry. Last week, Rev. Dcn. Kent gave a wonderful homily. Thus, God is working through different people in different ways.

As Katie Schuth belongs to our parish and she is interested in doing the ministry of God, let us support her with our generous heart. Let us keep her in prayer and May the Spirit of God empower her to guide young people to FAITH. To support her missionary spirit, read the direction given in the COMMUNICATION TO ALL. Thanks to her for speaking to us at the end of all Masses Last Week.

I have another happy news. For this summer, we have a Seminarian, Jared Clements with us till the end of August. He is a seminarian of the Diocese of La Crosse. He is doing his Theology in Rome. He is a nice gentleman and would like to talk to people to know about what the faithful want from the priest in modern times. It is a good time to talk with the Seminarian and give your experience of life. Take him out for lunch or fishing or golfing. Future Priests need people's experience. Let us Welcome Jared Clements to our Parish.

Last year, we had the Seminarian Isaac Pecha. He wishes all of us the best summer. Let us pray for his ministry and formation to Priesthood.

This week, we come to know from the readings that God calls anyone he likes. Amos says, "I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The Lord took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel,"

God chooses you and me, so let us go and prophesy.

Fr. Antony Joseph
