Dear Families of St. Mary's and St. Bart's,
I wish you all Happy Easter. In the Holy Week, we celebrate the beautiful messages that the Lord has given us.

Holy Thursday: Order of Priesthood and Eucharist

Good Friday: Dying to oneself to raise in Christ as His Disciple

Easter Vigil: celebrating the true light, the risen light, Jesus Christ

Faith in God or in a person starts with an experience. The human who is limited in his nature can cross that limitation only with experience. Whether David the King killing Goliath or St. Anthony of Padua drinking poison or Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego walking in the fire (Daniel 3:23-26) or St. Bartholomew, our patron saint being flayed alive. It all needed an experience of Jesus to cross the limitation of anything that is against the will of God and offer oneself beyond limitation to God.

It is this kind of experience that we are called to seek in this Holy Week and Easter Time. It resounded in my ear when a small girl told me "I don't know you, Father. "I know your parents." I spoke. The reply came, "Yes, But I don't know you"

Unless we have a personal dialogue and relationship with the person, we cannot know the person. Being good is not enough. As the risen people of Christ, we are called to allow ourselves to be known. If only people know each other, they can carry the cross for each other.

Fr. Antony Joseph
