

My Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

The readings of the fifth Sunday of Easter contain inspiring but challenging messages for us Christian stewards. The Gospel from John includes this well-known verse: "My children...I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Living a life of love and service requires self-sacrifice which is not easy because it requires us to fight against our selfish inclinations continuously. Amazingly, the more we give our lives away to others, the more He fills us up with Himself, who is love itself. And amid the inevitable challenging moments, this way of life entails, we can be assured that the Lord who loves us so much that He died for us. So as we face the hardships that come with living as Christian stewards, we can continue to rejoice in the wonder of the Resurrection this Easter season, finding great joy in following in our Lord's footsteps and in loving as He loves.

God Bless, Fr. Jey
