Dear Friends,

I am missing you all for another week and I will be gone next week (4th and 5th June) for Mission Appeal to New Orleans, Louisiana. I will also be meeting my friends. Kindly pray for my journey.

On Monday, Memorial Day, there will be a Mass at the Holy Cross Cemetery at 6:00 PM. I will be there. I pray the weather cooperates and we have a Nice Mass and Blessings of Tombs.

Fr. Arivu will say Masses this weekend. I am very grateful to him for saying Masses at my parishes. Next Week (4/5 June), Fr. Jose Edayadiyil, the Vincentian Priest will be here at our parishes for Mission Appeal. He will say Masses and there will be a Second Collection for his congregation appeal.

Many of you know that I am appointed as a Pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Patrick Parish, Eau Claire. God has given me another parish to do my pastoral ministry and bring joy to the people. With all the experiences that I have received from our parishes, I hope to do the best and bring Joy of Jesus to the faithful. I want you to know that wherever I go, Trempealeau and Galesville will be my Home Town and perhaps Packers is my Football Team. Go Packers!

This week, we celebrate The Ascension of the Lord; it seems Jesus is leaving (ascending) to the Father. He is leaving but not abandoning. He promises the advocate, The Holy Spirit whose presence never leaves us.

I will be with you always to the end of the world.

Happy Ascension of the Lord.

Fr. Antony Joseph.
