Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Dear Friends,

I thank God and Our Lord, Jesus Christ for his incredible gift of my people from St. Mary's and St. Bartholomew's Catholic Churches. For the last seven years, the Lord Our God has anointed me with the oil of gladness; the anointing oil that the Lord has used is your love, prayers and concerning hearts. For a blessed man, what does he need more than these!

I rejoice and I want you to know that I fill my heart with everlasting love and gratitude. I want you to know that my prayers and gratitude will flow like the running water in the Mississippi river. It may increase but it will never stop running. In the same way, my remembrance of you in my prayer will never cease. Out of my 14 years of priesthood, I have spent seven years with you. I was named Pastor here and with the God-Given-ability, I have led and strengthened myself and you, my people of two parishes. As we read in Acts 1:8, you will be the witnesses of it.

Not just with words but my heart residing in these words, I thank the Pastoral and Financial Councils of both parishes for their eminent support in leading the parishes. Their planning and executing were always excellent. I thank the Deanery Priests and Deacons for their pastoral guidance. I thank Knights of Columbus and PCCW for their help in the administration of the parishes.

Above all, I thank all the parishioners for their presence, prayers and present to the Church and to me personally, especially your generous gift for my farewell. With these gifts, your love fills my heart with happiness and joy. Thank You.

And do I take credit for anything? Yes, One thing amidst all wonderful works. One that I was able to bring in your heart happiness and on your face a smile. Personally, a smile makes a good friend. Finally, my dearest friends, Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing.

In all circumstances give thanks,
for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

From a Good and Dearest Friend with a smile,
Fr. Antony Joseph
