Solemnity of the Corpus Christi: The source of the Christian life

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ popularly known as Corpus Christi. It was introduced in the late 13th century to encourage the faithful to give special adoration to the Holy Eucharist.

Today, both our first and second reading talk about covenant, sacrifice, and blood. According to the first reading, the old covenant was sealed with the blood of animal sacrifice which Moses sprinkled on the people. On the contrary, the second reading reminds us that the new covenant was sealed with the blood of Christ. This is what makes the functional difference.

While the first covenant never guaranteed eternal life, the new does because it was sealed with costly blood through a perfect sacrifice offered once and for all.

In the gospel, Christ instituted the Holy Eucharist. Here he was both the priest and the victim. This is another difference between the new and the old covenant. As the priest, Christ offered himself to God for our salvation. So, it is important to note that whenever we celebrate the Holy Eucharist, Christ is fully present both as the priest and as the victim.

The church teaches us that: “The Eucharist is the source and the summit of the Christian life and “the sum and summary of our faith”.

The Eucharist is the true body and blood of Christ which nourishes our soul through which Christ is divinely present with us every day and moment. So, we must pay more attention to the Holy Eucharist by spending more time in His divine presence. If we present ourselves before him daily, he will fill us with wisdom and show us the best way to approach life.

This means that we should adore and offer Christ the reverence due to him. Any moment spent in the presence of the Most Holy Sacrament is both a golden moment and a moment of grace. God Bless You All!

PASTORAL COUNCIL ITEM FOR YOU:

+ Are we so accustomed to our parish culture that we've forgotten we're, in fact, an outpost of the Kingdom of God?
+ Pope Francis put it this way: "there are two images of the Church: Church which evangelizes and comes out of herself, ... and the worldly Church, living within herself, of herself, for herself. This should shed light on the possible changes ... which must be done for the salvation of souls."
