Fear Not The Lord Calms Our Storms

On the twelfth Sunday of the ordinary time, the holy mother church reminds and encourages us that, Christ is with us even in the midst of all the storms of this life.

Both the first reading from Job and the Gospel of Mark today, reminds us that God is the creator of the world. Hence, he has the power to control and regulate all the natural, physical and spiritual forces or activities going on in this world. He knows when best to intervene both in our personal life and in the history of our entire world. This is evident in his timely response to Job and, intervention in the situation of his disciples.

In the second reading, God intervenes in our life out of His love for us his children and world. He allowed his only son Jesus Christ to die at the appropriate time to save and renew us.

Life is full of storms. At times, they can become so strong and strange that our human strength can no longer support us. At such moments fear and complaints might take over the central stage of our life. Even in some cases, we might lose our faith in God, thinking that he has abandoned us or that he does not exist. These storms come in different forms.

They could be problems in our marriage, family, our children, no good job, poor finance, or a prolonged sickness that has defiled all treatments, also be the inability to find or maintain a good and stable relationship or, falling out with people all the time, also poor results in our business. The list is unending, but these represent the realities we face every day.

My dear people, the truth is that there is no assurance that our lives would be completely free of storms. However, the good news is that there is an assurance that Christ is with us to help us succeed. So, we shall overcome all our storms with Christ. God Bless You All!!
