The Holy Eucharist: The Core of our Faith
 My Dear Brothers and Sisters, the solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), which the Church celebrates today, reminds all of us of the beautiful gifts of God to us through Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The Body and Blood of Christ (the Eucharist) is the most excellent gift ever given to us by Christ.

The first reading tells us that “Abram offered Melchizedek a tithe of everything.” He did not give it to receive something in return. Instead, he did it out of his own free will. Of course, Melchizedek blessed him and offered thanks to God on his behalf with bread and wine. These were offerings of oneself in the form of material items.

In the Second Reading Paul says that Christ offers himself sacramentally to us. This is simply a way of expressing his unconditional love for us. He commands us: “Do this in remembrance of me!” It means, we are called to repeat Jesus’ actions and words until he comes.

So, when we re-live the experience, we not only eat His Body and drink His Blood, but we are also nourished spiritually to offer ourselves for the salvation of others.

The Gospel shows Jesus feeding the crowd, pointing to the Eucharist as spiritual food. The Eucharist nourishes our souls and unites us with Jesus and brings us together as one Body in Christ.

Christ offers us his body and blood, real food and drink, which is the mystery and core of our faith. In the Holy Eucharist, Christ draws us closer to himself and reminds us to care for each other and live in harmony.

Therefore, we must be hospitable enough to help the weak, the spiritually hungry, and the thirsty to participate in the great feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

So, today Let us specially thank and adore Christ who is present with us in the Holy Eucharist as the head of the Church. Happy Feast of Corpus Christi. God Bless.
