CHANGE, FOLLOW, HEAL

Today's Gospel begins with Jesus telling us to "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." He then personally invites you & I to follow Him & engage in His mission. It closes with Jesus going around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming this gospel of the kingdom, & curing every disease & illness among the people.

Pope Benedict XVI, in his book, Jesus of Nazareth, writes that "Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission & of Christian faith in general. It can even be said that Christianity is a 'therapeutic religion, a religion of healing.'"

The Catechism of the Catholic Church asserts that, "Christ's compassion toward the sick & His many healings of every kind of infirmity are a resplendent sign that 'God has visited his people' & that the Kingdom of God is close at hand. Jesus has the power not only to heal, but also to forgive sins; He has come to heal the whole man, soul & body; He is the physician the sick have need of".

Jesus also tells us that "These signs will accompany those who believe "in my name they will drive out demons, ... they will lay hands on the sick, & they will recover"". In the light of what Jesus said, any baptized believer can pray for the sick. We're to do as He said. The results, though, are up to Him, not us—His time, His way, His will.

Here at St. Mary's, we have witnessed Him working through everyday people to do some wonderful things: a heart healed (surgery cancelled), a cancer healed, joints brought into alignment, eyesight & hearing restored, to name a few. Not everyone prayed for has received physical healing, but He assures us through His Word that He is for us & will do whatever best prepares us to be with Him forever. He never gives up on anyone.

He promises us, "I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, ... nothing will be impossible for you.". How much faith is that? Enough to ask a person if it's OK to pray with them, not just for them, to put your hand on their shoulder, & then ask Jesus to heal them, waiting a few minutes to give them time to receive His blessing. Our task is to ask, His is to do.

God bless!

Dcn. Kent
