Walking with Jesus in the Desert

My dear brothers and sisters, as we begin the First Week of Lent, the Sunday readings invite us to walk with Jesus into the desert. In Genesis, Adam and Eve faced temptation and fell because they doubted God's word. In the Gospel, Jesus is also tempted, but He remains faithful and trusts the Father completely.

Lent invites us to reflect on our own lives. At times, we too give in to temptation and choose our own way instead of God's. But the good news is that Jesus has conquered sin and offers us grace, forgiveness, and new life. This first week of Lent is a time to begin again. Through prayer, fasting, and acts of charity, let us walk with Jesus, trusting that He will strengthen us and renew our hearts as we prepare for the joy of Easter.

A Note of Gratitude After My Visit to India

I sincerely thank each one of you for your prayers and loving support during my recent visit to India. By God's grace, I had a safe and peaceful journey.

I arrived in India on January 7 and went directly home. It was a great joy to meet my mother and family after one year. On January 11, we celebrated the Baptism of my niece, my younger brother's daughter. It was a beautiful and grace-filled family celebration.

Most of my time was spent at home with my mother and family. My brothers, nieces, nephews, and relatives gathered often, making each day feel like a joyful family reunion. Although I experienced some jet lag at the beginning, I gradually adjusted to the time and climate and was able to enjoy the visit.

During my stay, I also visited the Basilica of Our Lady of Good Health. At this holy shrine, where thousands of pilgrims come to pray, I remembered all of you and entrusted our parish and families to the loving care of Mother Mary.

It was truly a refreshing and blessed time. My family sends their greetings and thanks for your continued support and prayers to my ministry. I am happy to be back with you and grateful for your cooperation and understanding during my absence.

Wishing you all a grace-filled and meaningful Lenten season.

Fr. Sebastian

REBUILD MY CHURCH INITIATIVE & YOU (from the Diocesan website):

+ After months of listening, Bishop Battersby is inviting all of us to pivot from maintenance to mission.

+ The Indicators of a Parish Fully Alive on Mission, beginning with a Culture of Discipleship, are supported by Formation, is a Culture of Accompaniment:

- 1) First-time visitors find their encounters with parishioners to be positive and hospitable.
- 2) Those who are curious, newer to faith, or rediscovering faith feel welcomed & find easy "on ramps" for involvement & the beginnings of discipleship.
- 3) The parish ensures the formation of lay apostles who pray and discern well, who are skilled listeners, & who generously & patiently accompany others.
- 4) Those accompanying others continue their own journey of conversion, allowing themselves to be accompanied by & accountable to companions & mentors. + Are we there yet?

- ♦ Following Sunday Mass: Prayer for healing & other needs. A prayer team is available to pray with you.

COMMUNICATION TO ALL

- ♦ Thank you to all who remembered me on my birthday with wishes, prayers, cards and gifts. Father Sebastian.
